MLB NOTES

Halladay to Phils; Mariners get Lee

Associated Press

SEATTLE — The Philadelphia Phillies got ace pitcher Roy Halladay from Toronto and traded Cliff Lee to Seattle on Wednesday, Dec. 16, completing a complicated, four-team deal that featured a pair of Cy Young winners.

Roy Halladay
Now a Phillie

Oakland also was part of the nine-player swap. Money was a key factor. The Blue Jays sent with little word from either side. Holmgren spent two days talking with the Browns about assuming control of their football operations.

There were reports Wednesday evening that Holmgren had been offered the job with an annual salary of $8 million to $10 million. It appears Holmgren is weighing his options, which could include several other teams.

Browns coach Eric Mangini, whose destiny could be decided by Cleveland's new football czar, was placed in the awkward position of having to answer several questions about Holmgren's courtship.

"It's not unsettling, at all," said Mangini, 2-11 in his first season with Cleveland. "I'm all for anybody that can come in and help us organizationally be more successful. The more smart people, talented people you can put in the building that have the same approach, that's the best thing you can have."

Ochocinco wants to fight Chargers LB

SAN DIEGO — Bengals wideout Chad Ochocinco went off on San Diego Chargers linebacker Shawne Merriman during a conference call with reporters on Wednesday, saying he wants to fight him. And he was serious, came to an end when all sides signed off.

The 32-year righty went 17-10 with a 2.79 ERA last season. He led the American League with four shutouts and nine complete games. The six-time All-Star won the 2003 AL Cy Young.

ANGELS: Hideki Matsui and Los Angeles agreed to a $6 million, one-year contract, bringing the World Series MVP and two-time All-Star to the AL West power.

Matsui hit .274 with 28 homers and 90 RBIs last season for the Yankees, then was selected World Series MVP despite start-dium, he was serving a four-game suspension for testing positive for steroids.

"I will beat Shawne's head in, right now," Ochocinco said. "It's not even fun. This is not in fun. This is personal. Bring it on."

Bengals add Smith and dump Purify

CINCINNATI — Defensive tackle Shaun Smith rejoined the Cincinnati Bengals, four days after the team released him.

The Bengals need another defensive lineman while Domata Peko recovers from knee surgery. They signed Smith last Wednesday, then released him on Saturday. Smith played for the Bengals from 2004-06 and for the Browns the last two years.

The Bengals waived receiver Maurice Purify to open a roster spot.

Ex-Brown Frye is new Raiders' QB

ALAMEDA, Calif. — Charlie Frye will start at quarterback over former starter JaMarcus Russell when the Oakland Raiders visit the Denver Broncos.

Frye, who began his career with the Browns, has not played this year and worked strictly with Oakland's scout team. "I've been that crutch and that supportive guy all season," he said. "It's my turn."
